

Wales Biodiversity Partnership Conference 2022 Programme

Timeslot	Monday 3 rd Oct	Tuesday 4 th Oct	Weds 5 th Oct	Thursday 6 th Oct	Friday 7 th Oct
Day's theme	Conference opening	Ecosystems, species, and genetic diversity	Human needs are met	Benefits shared equitably	Means of implementation
Morning session	10.30am: Conference Opening Speech by Julie James, Minister for Climate Change 11am: Outcomes and Recommendations from the Biodiversity Deep Dive	10am: National Nature Service for Wales 11.30am: NRW's River Restoration Programme and the Freshwater Pearl Mussel strategy for Wales 12pm: Protecting rivers from physical modification	10am: Sustaining Wales's Living Legends 10.45am: Well-being goals through Tree & Woodland Strategies 11.30am: Wildfire – Good Fire and Bad Fire	10am: Section 6 Biodiversity Duty 10.30am: Net Benefits for Biodiversity & DECCA 11am: Biodiversity policy post-Brexit	10am: COP15: How can Wales deliver global biodiversity goals? 10.45am: Nature Wise / Nabor Nature: Wales-based eco-literacy training 11.15am: Climate Cymru 11.45am: Natur a ni / Nature and Us
Afternoon session	1.30pm: Project SIARC (Sharks Inspiring Action & Research with Communities) 2pm: Developing a Circular Economy for Fishing Gear 2.30pm: Natur am Byth! Welcome to Marine Treasures	1.30pm: Biosecurity: Improving understanding and uptake 3pm: Negating the impact of pet dogs on wildlife, ecosystems and livestock 3.20pm: Curlew distributions over time by land cover class and climate in Britain and Ireland	1.30pm: Urban Communities Taking Action 2pm: Local Places for Nature 2.30pm: Nature Friendly Farming Network 3pm: Sustainable Farming Scheme	1pm: Nature Networks in South Central Wales 1.30pm: Greater Gwent Nature Recovery Action Plan 1.45pm: Natur am Byth! Saving Wales's threatened species 2.30pm: Coastal and marine eco-engineering for biodiversity	1pm: Innovative finance workshop 2pm: Conference closing speech from Sir David Henshaw